ASTIGMATISM.

What it is, and How Corrected.

Asigmatism or Irregular Vision is one of the most common of all the refractive errors. It is due to the irregular curvature of the film known as the cornea. Of course no instrument is sufficient to correct it, but in the hands of a thoroughly efficient and competent eye specialist the ophthalmometer reveals the exact condition of the eye in a way that nothing else can. If your eyes need attention have DR. J. T.
JOHNSON to put them under this wonderful instrument. Office hours 8:30

HARMONIOUS CONVENTION.

The Democrats Meet and Ratify the Ward Nominations.

A more harmonious convention was never held in this city than that held by the democrats in the court house last night. Mr. Chas. H. Ireland was made chairman and John S. Michaux secretary, with members of the democratic press assistants. Mr. Ireland made a character speech on taking the chair. His sound advice was followed in a manner that showed the true democracy of Greensboro to be of one mind, viz., the success of the ticket at the polls and a desire to promote the welfare of our beloved city.

The nominations for aldermen made in the different ward meetings on the previous night were unanimously ratified, including also those for members of the city democratic executive committee. The very best and warmest of feeling seemed to prevail, and not a ripple of discord was heard.

Mr. John J. Nelson in a masterly speech before the convention the name of the present incumbent, Mr. Zeb V.
Taylor, for the office of mayor. This was greeted with a storm of applause.
Several gentlemen seconded the nomination of Mr. Taylor. The name of Mr. C. N. McAdoo was also placed before the convention, but withdrawn just as a ballot was about to be taken.
Mr. Taylor was then nominated by acclamation by a rising vote. Nearly every man in the convention (and the court house was packed) stood up.
Mr. Taylor was called for and accepted the nomination in a short speech amid ringing cheers.

The following is the democratic ticket for mayor and aldermen, subject to the will of the people in next Monday's election:

FOR MAYOR.
Zebulon Vance Taylor.

FOR ALDERMEN.
First ward—Branch H. Merrimon, Clement G. Wright.
Second ward—Peter D. Price, Milton L. Shields.
Third ward—William T. Sergeant, Harper J. Elam.
Fourth ward—Neil Ellington, John M. Walker.
Fifth ward—Vernon Vuncannon, Robt
M. Phillips.
Sixth ward—John S. Hunter, John W. Merritt.

LARGE CONGREGATIONS

Attending The Meetings of The Conference Here.

The work of the Epworth League and Sunday school conference is going on with increased interest, large congregations at every meeting. Mr. C.
H. Ireland presided at yesterday afternoon's session which opened by a prayer and praise service conducted by Rev. P. J. Caraway. Interesting and helpful talks were made by Hon.
K. L. Smith, Rev. F. L. Townsend, Mr. Frank M. Weaver, Rev. T. L.
Rawly and Messrs. D. E. Moseley and Benlin, the latter two of Danville.
Dr. Frank H. Wood conducted the devotional service at the opening of last night's meeting. One minute reports from leaguers, by delegates were heard and nearly all reports showed increased membership and general interest. Rev. G. H. Detwiler, of Gastania, then spoke on "The Epworth League in the Twentieth Century Movement." He dealt with his subject in an able manner and held the rapid attention of the congregation for an hour and ten minutes.

The session this morning was one of the most interesting yet held. It opened with a praise meeting, led by Rev. D. H. Comany, after which reports from leaguers were heard. Rev.
H. H. Jordan, Rev. R. D. Sherrill and Rev. J. A. B. Fry, spoke on missionary work and some time was also given to the Junior League. Prof. A.
H. Merritt spoke on literary work, and made a splendid speech. He is professor of Greek and German at Trinity College and a most entertaining talker.
His speech was full of thought and was eagerly listened to by his audience.

Mr. Cobb, of Danville, also made an interesting talk at this morning's meeting.

OLD "DIXIE"

Never Fails to Arouse the Warmest Enthusiasm.

Yesterday evening about six o'clock the First Regiment band played a few pieces at the corner of West Market and South Elm, and instantly a large crowd began to collect—gentlemen, ladies, old men, and children, stopping to listen to the entrancing strains of martial music. "Our boys!" certainly know how to play—there's no defalcation about that fact.

Presently grand old "Dixie" was struck up, and the crowd cheered enthusiastically, many an old follower of the fallen but honored and honored flag baring his head as the instruments crashed that inspiring melody upon the air.

Notice.

All firemen in the city are requested to meet at the steamer hall Tuesday night, May 2, at 8 o'clock.

W. R. Pleasant, Chief.

PEACE NOT YET IN SIGHT.

Otis and the Rebel General Are Still Disagreeing.

AGUILO OFFERS TO YIELD

Upon Conditions Which the American Commander Sternly Declines to Accept.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Manila, April 29—Aguineldo today offered to surrender everything, men and munitions, upon condition of the independence of the Philippines and an American protectorate.

CONFERENCE WITHOUT RESULT.

Manila, April 29 (afternoon)—The conference between Otis and the Philippine commissioners today is without result. The commissioners have returned to the insurgent lines.

SECOND CONFERENCE.

Manila, April 29—The second conference lasted three hours. Dewey, Prof. Schurman, and the Filipino commissioners, were present besides Otis. The commissioners simply renewed the request of yesterday for an armistice until the rebel congress could meet and act. The insurgent representatives frankly admitted they were whipped. Otis emphatically refused an armistice on those conditions.
Although the commissioners returned to their lines, it is believed they will surrender unconditionally.

FIGHTING TO BE RESUMED.

Washington, April 29—Otis cables that the conference with the insurgent representatives terminated this morning, their request for a cessation of hostilities for three weeks, enabling them to call the Filipino congress together to determine whether the people wanted a continued prosecution of the war or peace, having been declined.
Full amnesty was promised them on their surrender. It is believed that the insurgents are tired of war, but seek to secure terms of peace through what they pronounce their representative congress. The expectation at Washington is that fighting will be resumed immediately in the vicinity of Calumpit.
The brief respite came in good time for the American troops, who have been nearly exhausted by the hard marches and skirmishing and fighting under the hot sun. A large number succumbed yesterday.

CONTEST OF ORATORY

At Guilford College Last Night By The Websterian Society.

A representative of the Telegram attended the oratorical contest at Guilford College last night between the six elected members of the Websterian Society.

The start was made from here in hacks, in company with a number of friends, and the drive of six miles through the country, the air fresh and bracing, was a delightful one. Arrived at the college, we found Duke Hall packed with college students, ladies and gentlemen from Greensboro, and people from the surrounding country.

Prof. Brooks' own excellent orchestra was there, furnishing the sweetest music, and the exercises passed off quickly.

Six young intellectual gladiators entered the arena, their respective orations receiving great applause from the audience. The names of the contestants were as follows: K. E.
Hendricks, R. C. Willis, C. M. Short, T. B. Hinton, H. C. Taylor and C. O.
Meredith. Mr. T. B. Hinton, a very bright young man, having for his subject "America's Colonial Power," was awarded the prize, which was a finely bound Webster's unabridged dictionary mounted on a lovely stand. The boys all did exceedingly well, and the judges had to deliberate for some time before they could decide to whom belonged the prize.

The improvement medal was presented to Mr. Chas. W. Davis, by Mr. W. P. Ragan, of High Point.

It was a most delightful occasion and the large audience enjoyed themselves immensely.

THE DETROIT AT BLUEFIELDS.

Arrival of the Cruiser Puts a Different Face on State of Affairs.

New Orleans, April 28—A steamer from Bluefields reports the Detroit reached there April 19, with Minister Merry and the Nicaraguan foreign minister. The situation is now improving.

The day before the Detroit arrived a serious riot occurred, in which three Jamaicans and two Nicaraguan soldiers were wounded. All stores were closed except two. Commander Dayton, of the Detroit, had an interview with General Torres, but the result is not known. American goods on which extra duties were not paid were seized, but it is expected the Americans will pay the duties, and when the question shall have been investigated, be allowed to deduct these amounts from other charges on goods not yet received.

MR. WALSH DECLINES.

Please notify parties getting out the independent ticket not to put my name on it. I have just learned that a ticket of this kind was being gotten out with my name on it. I prefer to abide by the decision of the regular ward meetings.

J. H. Walsh.

MR. BAIN DECLINES.

I have been informed that a certain individual has taken the liberty of ordering one of the printing offices in this city to print what he terms a "citizen's ticket," on which my name appears as a candidate for alderman for the fifth ward. This was done without my knowledge or consent, and I take this method of informing my friends that if elected on any such ticket I will not serve. I am a democrat, and it will give me pleasure to work for the success of the democratic ticket, and I advise all my friends to do likewise.

E. E. Bain.

MR. WALL DECLINES.

I understand that my name is to be on the ticket for alderman from the fifth ward in opposition to the regular nominees, and I hereby respectfully decline to accept such nomination, and ask that my name be withdrawn.

J. R. Wall.

MR. GILMER DECLINES.

I understand that some one is having my name printed on a ticket for alderman for the 6th ward. I state positively that it is without my authority and would not serve if elected.

R. A. Gilmer.

MR. TUCKER DECLINES.

I thank my friends for the confidence they have placed in me by naming me as a candidate for alderman in the sixth ward, but my business is such that I cannot give same my attention.

E. R. Tucker.

Mr. R. G. Hilt requests us to state in this connection that under no circumstances will he allow his name to be used on the citizen's ticket. He has been approached on the matter and told that his name would be used.

The First to Pay.

Greensboro, N. C., April 29, '99.

Mr. J. H. Merritt, Greensboro, N. C.
Dear Sir:—In reply to yours today life of H. H. Cartland in the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Co., Thursday morning 9:30. April 27th '99 I received check for claim in the Providence Savings, Thursday evening 9:30. The Penn Mutual was certainly the first company to pay any claims on life of H. H. Cartland. Very truly, Mrs. H. G. Cartland.

Witness Sam N. Thompson. 28a3t

THE CONFEDERATE REUNION

At Charleston, S. C., Will Be a Great Gathering.

CAPTAIN COGHLAN MAY COME

With the Cruiser Raleigh to Wilmington, As There is Much Desire South to See Him.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, April 29—The Confederate reunion at Charleston, S. C., which begins May 10, will be attended by many ex-Confederate veterans from this section. The reunion will be on a larger scale than for many years past, and will be attended also by many Union veterans, as well as those who fought in the struggle for the Southland. An effort was made to induce the president to attend this reunion, but he was compelled to decline owing to the pressure of public business.

A special meeting of Confederate veterans was held Thursday night at Confederate Veterans' hall, this city, and several delegates and alternates were chosen to attend the Charleston reunion. Among the delegates is Gen.
Joseph Wheeler, and also the following well known leaders: Col. Hilary A. Herbert, formerly secretary of the navy; Major R. W. Hunter; Captain W. A. Gordon, Captain James Compton, Captain H. B. Littlepage, J. Mc-Dowell Carrington, Col. J. F. Trout-man, Mr. John D. Browne, Capt. Geo.
H. Ingraham, Mr. Frank Hume, Capt.
Ben Martin, and Judge Franklin H.
Mackey.

The alternates are as follows: Mr.
Findley Harris, Major Albert Akers, Major H. L. Briscoe, Dr. G. Wythe Cook, Mr. John T. Callaghan, Mr. G.
Edmondson, Mr. W. C. King, Hon.
Silas Hare, Major E. W. Anderson, Major J. D. Darden, Captain John M.
Hickey, Mr. W. R. Teller, and Mr. W.
J. Parr.

The Confederate veterans also, by a unanimous vote, selected Miss Emma Hume, daughter of Hon. Frank Hume, the well known Virginia leader, as sponsor and Miss Casey Young Wright, daughter of General Marcus J. Wright, as her maid of honor to represent the District division at Charleston.

Democrats interested in the May conference are trying to secure from the railroads a reduced rate of fare between Washington and Richmond for the occasion. The rate asked is one half for the round trip. Thus far one of the railroads have acceded to the request, though it is thought that they may agree to a reduced rate later on. Whether the friends of the conference will be able to secure one rate for the round trip, or not, however, is a question. At the office of the Atlantic Coast Line, it was stated yesterday that nothing in the matter has been done yet.

Lieutenant J. E. Hatcher, of the Tenth United States Cavalry, was in Washington the other day. He was enroute to Fort North to join his regiment which has been ordered to the Philippines. During the late Spanish war he served as Captain of volunteers in Cuba. He is a nephew of Rev. W.
E. Hatcher, of Richmond, and has several relatives in this city. It is understood that he will only be in Washington for a short time.

At the navy department yesterday it was stated that there has been no change in the situation regarding Captain Coghlan, of the cruiser Raleigh.
It has not, it is stated, been definitely decided whether he will accompany the Raleigh to Wilmington and Charleston or not, and it is generally hoped that after all he may accompany his vessel on its trip south. As stated the other day there is much desire among the southern people to see the captain who was in charge of the vessel on its cruise in the Philippines.

Dr. Allen Wyche, colored, who was married in this city Thursday afternoon to Ethel J. Davis, daughter of Mrs. Annie Cryer Davis, of this city, has gone with his bride to Charlotte, North Carolina, where they will reside. The bride is one of the best known young colored women in Washington, and has many friends among both races who wish for her a long and happy life. The prize is received by the couple were many, and some of them quite valuable.

James E. Hicks has been commissioned postmaster at Chronicle, N. C.
John McN. Cameron has been commissioned postmaster at Endon, N. C.

Mr. J. A. Gorham and wife, well known residents of Charlotte, N. C., are at the Metropolitan Hotel for a few days. Mr. Gorham being here on personal business.

Mr. F. F. Doolittle, and John W.
Gulick, of North Carolina, are registered also at the Metropolitan.

Mr. L. M. Hull, of Shelby, N. C., is stopping at the National Hotel.

SATURDAY, APRIL 29, 1899.

Gen. Wheeler has had a sudden check placed upon his Philippine aspirations. The administration refuses to accept his services. The fame of a large majority of McKinley's favorites would shine dim compared with the glory the old hero would win before he had been over there a week.

The South is destined to receive incalculable benefit from the recent visit among us of the northern newspaper men. The Portland, Me., Express says:

Truer ideas of the New South are being conceived here by the reading of the letters from the newspaper league representatives, as they appear from day to day in the Express.

It is very funny to read in a majority of the dailies the exhaustive editorials on the never-endingness of the Philippine war, the untold millions that must be expended in putting a quietus on Aguinaldo, etc., and then to turn to the press dispatches on another page, where we are told that the Filipino government is tottering to its fall, and that the struggle of the islanders has grown very weak, and that the general of the insurgents has really proposed to surrender his forces to the American commander. It has been the fate of the average editor all along since the war has been going on to make propositions in his editorial columns which are flatly contradicted by the news columns in the same issue.

The nations do not seem to take on to that international peace conference with the degree of enthusiasm that the czar would like. England, France and Germany look upon the thing as a joke; and the crisis is far too grave in the east for Japan to divert herself of any implements of war, while Russia herself, screaming for universal peace, continues to add to her tremendous fleets in the grossest insincerity. In the matter of sending out the invitations America was snubbed by reason of her alleged small military equipment—so "small" that she was not reckoned in the resume of the powers of the earth. Uncle Sam is a silent gentleman in such wildcat schemes as this, but when the scrap arises, if the business before the house concerns him, he generally figures pretty prominently.

"JUST PLAIN BOSS."

It was a very happy incident that all the silver-throated rhetoricians of America should have passed by and the unconstructed Joe Wheeler chosen to deliver the oration at the Grant monument ceremonies Thursday. General Wheeler said these words, and the northerners received them in the spirit in which they were spoken: "Two names will go down in ages side by side, Grant the leader, magnanimous in victory; Lee, than whom no greater ever survived defeat." The last line of distinction between the northern and southern soldier has been wiped away and now the yankee and the rebel stand with hands clasped in mutual love and esteem, acknowledging one flag, one country, and one God, and, in the words of Admiral Kautz at Apia, "just plain boss" of the globe. It may be a pity, this latter, but 'tis true.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know the oft-repeated experience of trust-worthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. For sale by C. E. Holton.

On the recommendation of Archbishop Chapelle, of New Orleans, La., Rev. P. Farnada, of Santiago de Cuba, has been appointed Archbishop of that diocese.

I was reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the Worcester Enterprise recently, which leads me to write this. I can truthfully say I never used any remedy equal to it for colic and diarrhoea. I have never had to use more than one or two doses to cure the worst case with myself or children.

GERM CELLS OF LIFE.

THEY RETAIN VITALITY EVEN AFTER APPARENT DEATH.

A startling theory showing that instant death is an impossibility and that we may be conscious for some time after dissolution.

"You often meet with the phrase 'death was instantaneous,' and you believe it, but instant death is impossible.

A professor has been studying the subject, a man of renown in his own world, and he has discovered certain important data proving conclusively that no one can meet with instant death. He works out his theory on the data afforded by the physiology of cells. He states that no one yet has proved the difference between a dead and a living brain cell. When this has been done, then we can more easily ascertain how long a time elapses before the death of a cell takes place.

But first, what is a cell? To be brief, both plants and animals—including, of course, man—are built up of units, elementary units, which you can only detect under the microscope. Now, each tiny cell is a vital elementary unit. We are nothing but highly developed results of the individual vitality of huge quantities of these fundamental cells.

As this is undeniably so, how is it possible, by simple decapitation, say, to cause instant death in the millions of cells which compose the brain? It is known that brain cells have their own cell life and are cut off from outside nutrition without the supply of any blood whatever from the body. The nourishment is supplied inside the cell walls, and it can go on living after being cut off from other resources.

From this argument it is clear to the professor that these millions of cells in the brain must continue to live after death has apparently intervened—that is, when death appears, but only on the outside, to have been instantaneous.

After a man's leg is cut off, or an animal's, it can stimulate the nerves for a long time, but you cannot do it after the cells are dead. You cannot get any response at all.

Electricity has been thought to be the germ of life, but this is a fanciful theory when confronted with the new laws as by research established.

The countless millions of cells of which our bodies are entirely composed contain the germ of life, and it is impossible for these to be vitiated with an instantaneous unconsciousness.

You can take living cells from a pig's glands, and this same professor will demonstrate to you that after those glands have gone through their preparation the cells are still living.

But the curious fact remains that at present there are no data showing the supposed length of time it takes for the cells of the brain to empty themselves of the germ of consciousness or life, but it is certain that consciousness does not cease immediately after, say, a head has been cut off a body. The belief, however, is that at least four or five minutes must elapse ere death finally steps in to arrest life.

It has been noticed in the case of a decapitated head that the cheeks remain red for some minutes after the severance, a conclusive proof that the cells are still living.

The heads of decapitated animals have continued to bite and snap at the air for three or four minutes after severance. This phenomenon is well marked in the head of a tortoise separated from the body. The life of the brain, therefore, must be retained for some time after the head is severed from the body, the trunk, its nutritious blood and gases, taken from the fund stored up in the cells, are in sufficient quantity to carry on life, but for what exact period is unknown.

Do the brain cells die simultaneously? No, because they have their own individual cell life. Our scientific friend also makes the very startling statement that in many diseases the brain cells, although the person to all appearances is dead, may live for three or four hours after supposed death has taken place.

In the case of a healthy person being hanged, seeming death is not instantaneous at all. Organic motion is arrested, but real life is certainly not instantaneous. The brain cells are the last to die, and life is not really extinct until rigor mortis sets in, which, in the case of a healthy person dying suddenly, is protracted.

Now, when it is known that an ordinary cell lives after being removed from a living body, why, then, cannot the brain cells retain their life when the conditions immediately surrounding them are much the same as during their previous existence?

The head of a chicken was cut off, and after certain stimuli had been made it opened its mouth and gasped five minutes after its head had been decapitated from the body.

The head of a certain animal was cut off and found susceptible to light for many minutes after it was apparently dead. A strong electric light was held in front of the eyes and moved alternately near to and far away from them. The pupils of the eyes followed the light in its movements, expanding and contracting, that is to say, focusing themselves upon the light as it moved backward and forward. It was proved that the animal was capable of smelling by the use of certain pungent odors placed near the nasal organs—and this because the brain cells were yet living.

Raising Ducks Without Water.

Ducks don't need water to thrive. There are many duck raising plants in this country where thousands of the fowls are bred each year for market and where there is not even a puddle for them to flounder in. One of these farms is credited with an output of 20,000 ducks a year.

The Great Bargain Store

Which is daily growing to be a very popular store. We have made special efforts this season to secure a line of Furniture which embodies the essential features of elegance, style and beauty. We think we have accomplished our intention, and therefore earnestly invite your inspection.

Brass and Iron Bed Steads.

How many persons realize that in a small bedroom a Brass or Iron Bed does not seem more than two-thirds as large as a wooden one of the same size. Here is one great cause for the popularity of brass and iron beds. Then, too,

They Are So Airy and Open

that they afford much better ventilation. They do not enclose the sleeper with wooden walls, shutting off all circulation of air, but there is an open frame giving the utmost ventilation. All the world knows their intrinsic cleanliness. They are as neat as wax, as clean as snow. If properly lacquered they will retain their high lustre for years.

We show the largest variety of styles and designs of any house in Greensboro and our prices will be found lower for the same grade of goods.

THE REGIMENTAL BAND.

A Perfect Musical Organization Heard Here Last Night.

The audience at the Academy of Music last night can say with the others in whose towns the First Regiment band has appeared that the organization ranks second only to Sousa and Godfrey. It is pleasantly surprising to know that so perfect a band can be composed almost entirely of North Carolina boys, and the state has ample cause to be proud of it. The program, as published in yesterday's paper, was rendered last night, with five or six additional numbers, mostly popular airs, as encores. Conductor Coe may not have thought it, but by training his band he has made himself famous. One of the best pieces rendered—"The Tarheel March"—is of his own composition and its close received a hearty applause. The audience which followed every piece was most generous and when "Dixie" was played as an encore, the audience went wild. Quite a number of young ladies from the Normal College were present and at their request several beautiful airs were played.

The evening's program was concluded with the "Star Spangled Banner" the band and audience standing during the rendition.

It is hoped that the band may visit Greensboro again, when more people may have a chance to hear it. The democratic convention and the Epworth League and Sunday school conference prevented a large attendance last night.

We've got a pair for every baby and little girl in the city; cute little sandals and oxfords in tan, chocolate and black kid and patent leather. ### The Farmers are Happy.

There has been an unusually large number of country people in town today and business must have been good. The farmers who wore a discouraged look a short while ago are happy, almost rejoicing, now. The coming of the health-giving sun-line has changed the crop prospect from bad to very good—better than usual—and the farmers now expect to make the most bountiful harvests in years and they have lost no time in getting their seed in the ground. Everything is growing rapidly and with a continuance of good seasons the fondest hopes of the farmers will be fully realized. And if the crops are good every other business will reap the benefits.
